

What is the refundable security deposit?

The security deposit covers the excess premium that our insurers charge us for any claims made for damage or loss during your sailing holiday charter. It is paid to us upon your arrival in cash, credit card or travellers cheques and refunded upon successful completion of the charter. No security deposit is required for skippered charters.