

We would like to hire a skipper. Will they speak English and do they live aboard?

Our skipper is English and is a yacht sailing instructor and resident of kefalonia. Not merely a guide, he will also be your personal sailing instructor, should you wish. He will join you on the day after your arrival and occupy the saloon area if all the cabins are taken. We ask only that you pay for the skipper's day time meals. If you'd prefer total privacy in the evenings, alternative accommodation for the skipper can be arranged for a supplement of 40 euros per night.
