

Where and when will we board our yacht?

We have the flexibility to operate from either one of two ports on Kefalonia: Aghia Eufimia and Lixouri. So, if you sail from Aghia Eufimia you could return the yacht to Lixouri at the end of the charter. And vice versa. This means you can enjoy a different port for each night of your holiday. We can discuss and help you organise a great sailing itinerary that suits everyone. You will be given exact departure location details closer to your sailing holiday date. On arrival at Kefalonia airport, you will be met and driven to your yacht, which will be ready for boarding from 3pm. Don't worry if you arrive early. We will look after your belongings while you explore the local area, go for a swim or simply relax in one of the local tavernas. Our transfer day is Sunday.
