

What information is included in the yacht handover briefing?

First you will receive a general brief covering the local cruising area. We can then discuss and organise a suitable sailing itinerary. Any questions or concerns you have can also be answered. You will then be given specific information about the yacht. This will include demonstrations of all systems, including rigging, water, fuel and electrical systems, gas cooker, windlass, dinghy, outboard and emergency systems.

Click here to view the yacht specifications.