

Why must I book the flights so soon?

We can hold your provisional booking for one week. This gives you enough time to arrange your flights. We ask that this is done at an early stage to avoid subsequent cancellation at a later date should you not be able to find a flight. More information on booking can be found by clicking: How to Book and Pay.